FaithVault | Governing Beliefs

Anchored to Jesus. Built for Growth.

Our Foundation: Jesus Christ

We believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God, supreme over all creation, fully sufficient for our salvation, and worthy of our love and devotion.

Through Jesus Christ, God reconciles us to Himself. Our relationship with God is made possible by His grace, not by our accomplishments, religious practices, or spiritual progress.

We do not seek Jesus primarily for what we hope to receive from Him. We seek Him because of who He is.

Even when circumstances remain unchanged, prayers are not answered as we expect, or the results of our faithfulness remain unseen, Jesus is enough.

Scripture: Colossians 1:15–23; Colossians 2:6–10; Ephesians 2:8–10; Philippians 3:7–11.

Our Purpose: To Know Him and Make Him Known

FaithVault exists to encourage believers to intentionally know Jesus through His Word and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, remember His faithfulness throughout their lives, and boldly point others to Him as the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

We believe the greatest commandment is to love God with all our heart, soul, and mind.

Our desire is to encourage a life of ongoing fellowship with Jesus, not simply the completion of spiritual activities.

Scripture: Matthew 22:37–38; John 14:6; John 15:4–5.

Our Authority: God’s Word

We believe Scripture is inspired by God and is the authoritative foundation for understanding who He is, what He has accomplished, and how He calls us to live.

We believe the Holy Spirit guides believers into truth, directs their attention to Jesus, and works in their lives as they respond to God’s Word.

FaithVault is a tool for discipleship, not a replacement for Scripture, the Holy Spirit, prayer, or the local church.

Scripture: 2 Timothy 3:16–17; John 16:13–14; John 17:17; Psalm 119:105.

Our Practice: An Intentional Walk with Jesus

We believe relationships grow through intentional engagement, and believers are called to continue walking in Christ.

FaithVault encourages a consistent, personal rhythm of Scripture, prayer, reflection, and response to the Holy Spirit.

This private relationship with Jesus is the heart of the FaithVault experience.

The purpose of intentional discipleship is not to earn God’s approval, but to know and love Him more deeply.

An Invitation to Return

Our desire is that believers come to recognize time with Jesus in His Word as meaningful and valuable in itself, developing an increasing desire to return to Him—not out of obligation to an app or routine, but out of love for Him.

We hope the daily experience encourages this response:

"Time with Jesus in His Word matters. I want to return to Him, know Him more deeply, and walk with Him each day."

Scripture: Colossians 2:6–7; John 15:4–5; Luke 10:38–42; Psalm 119:105.

Our Remembrance: An Account of His Faithfulness

Throughout Scripture, God's people are encouraged to remember His works and tell future generations of His faithfulness.

We believe remembering God's faithfulness helps believers reflect on their spiritual journey, recognize how their understanding of Him has matured, and approach the future with greater trust.

Through FaithAccount, believers can maintain a personal record of prayers, Scripture, experiences, lessons, and testimonies.

We call these records spiritual assets—not because they represent spiritual wealth or merit, but because they preserve meaningful reminders of God's faithfulness.

Our experiences are always understood in light of Scripture. We do not assume that every circumstance or personal interpretation reveals God's purposes in full.

Scripture: Psalm 77:11–12; Psalm 78:4–7; Joshua 4:6–7; Deuteronomy 8:2.

Our Witness: Pointing Others to Jesus

We believe every believer has opportunities to bear witness to Jesus Christ through words, actions, relationships, and personal testimony.

FaithShare encourages believers to tell what Jesus has done in their lives, strengthen one another through shared experiences, and recognize visible connections within the body of Christ.

We believe the influence of a faithful life may extend far beyond what any person can see or measure.

Sharing through the FaithVault app is never a requirement of faithfulness. Our purpose is to encourage believers to point others to Jesus in everyday life, whether privately, personally, or through the platform.

The testimony is not ultimately about us. It is about Him.

Scripture: John 14:6; Acts 1:8; Mark 5:19; 1 Peter 3:15; 1 Corinthians 3:6–7.

Our Community: Unity in the Body of Christ

We believe Jesus Christ is the head of His Church and that believers are called to grow together in truth, humility, love, and unity.

Every member of the body has value, and every believer has opportunities to encourage and serve others.

We seek to celebrate God’s work without comparison, competition, or assigning greater spiritual worth to those whose stories are more visible.

FaithVault seeks to strengthen Christian community while encouraging active involvement in the local church.

Our unity is found in Jesus Christ, not in identical experiences, accomplishments, or public influence.

Scripture: Ephesians 4:1–6, 15–16; 1 Corinthians 12:12–27; John 17:20–23; Hebrews 10:24–25.

Our Measure: Faithfulness, Not Visible Results

We believe spiritual growth is the work of God in the believer’s life.

Practices of discipleship can encourage intentionality, but activity, consistency, public testimony, and visible influence are not measures of a person’s worth before God.

We recognize that God is at work in ways we cannot fully understand or observe.

We seek to remain faithful in loving Jesus, remembering His goodness, and pointing others toward Him, trusting God with the results.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 3:6–7; Galatians 6:9; 2 Corinthians 5:7; Colossians 3:17.

Our Governing Conviction

Jesus is worthy. His grace is sufficient. Through Him, God reconciles us to Himself.

We seek to know Him, remember His faithfulness, and make Him known.

Everything FaithVault creates should ultimately direct attention back to Jesus Christ.
