FaithVault | Statement of Faith

God First. Christ at the Center.

Our Foundation

FaithVault is founded on the belief that God is worthy of our wholehearted love, trust, and devotion.

We affirm the foundational truths of historic Christianity as revealed in Scripture. We seek to encourage believers to know God through Jesus Christ, grow through the work of the Holy Spirit, and live in fellowship with the body of Christ.

FaithVault is intentionally non-denominational. We do not seek to establish a denominational identity for believers or elevate religious traditions above God's Word. We encourage believers to seek God first, study Scripture, pray, and participate in Christian community as they discern where He is leading them.

1. One God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

We believe there is one God, eternally existing as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God is the Creator of all things and is worthy of all worship, love, and obedience.

Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:4–5; Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14.

2. Jesus Christ: Fully God and Fully Human

We believe Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God, fully divine and fully human. All things were created through Him and for Him. He is supreme over creation and the head of His Church.

Jesus is not simply an example to follow. He is our Lord and Savior, worthy of our devotion because of who He is.

Scripture: John 1:1–3, 14; Colossians 1:15–19; Colossians 2:9.

3. Salvation and Reconciliation Through Christ

We believe Jesus Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose bodily from the dead.

Through His death and resurrection, God provides forgiveness and reconciliation with Himself. Salvation is a gift of God's grace, received through faith in Jesus Christ, not earned through good works, religious practices, or personal achievement.

We believe Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15:3–4; Colossians 1:20–22; Ephesians 2:8–10; John 14:6.

4. The Authority of Scripture

We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are inspired by God and provide the authoritative foundation for understanding His character, His work, and His will.

We seek to approach Scripture with humility, careful attention to its meaning, and dependence on the Holy Spirit.

No FaithVault teaching, testimony, personal experience, or human interpretation carries authority equal to God's Word.

Scripture: 2 Timothy 3:16–17; John 17:17; Psalm 119:105.

5. The Work of the Holy Spirit

We believe the Holy Spirit glorifies Jesus Christ, guides believers into truth, and works in their lives to produce spiritual growth and Christlike character.

Our role is to respond in faith and obedience, trusting God to accomplish His transforming work.

Scripture: John 16:13–14; Galatians 5:22–25; 2 Corinthians 3:18.

6. The Church: One Body in Christ

We believe Jesus Christ is the head of His Church and that believers are called into one body.

We believe each member has value and that the body is called to grow in truth, love, humility, and unity.

FaithVault seeks to encourage participation in local Christian communities rather than replace the fellowship, worship, teaching, and accountability found within the Church.

Scripture: Colossians 1:18; Ephesians 4:1–6, 11–16; 1 Corinthians 12:12–27; Hebrews 10:24–25.

7. Loving God and Making Him Known

We believe the greatest commandment is to love God with all our heart, soul, and mind.

As believers grow in their relationship with Jesus, they are called to bear witness to Him through their lives, words, relationships, and testimonies.

We seek to honor God, encourage one another, and point others toward Jesus Christ.

Scripture: Matthew 22:37–38; Acts 1:8; 1 Peter 3:15.

Our Doctrinal Commitment

We affirm these foundational Christian beliefs while remaining intentionally non-denominational.

FaithVault does not determine a believer's denominational affiliation. We encourage individuals to seek God first through His Word, prayer, the Holy Spirit's guidance, and fellowship with the body of Christ.

God comes first. Our allegiance is to Jesus Christ. Our authority is His Word.
